Rush House Ltd has been awarded the Investors in People Standard, demonstrating their commitment to realising the potential of their people. Investors in People is the UK's leading accreditation for business improvement through people management, and provides a wealth of resources for businesses to innovate, improve and grow, with a focus on good people making great business.

Paul Devoy, Head of Investors in People, said: "Achieving the Investors in People Standard is something that any organisation should be truly proud of. Working with Investors in People inspires and enables leaders, managers and employees at all levels to build their skills, improve their performance and achieve their potential. We'd like to congratulate Rush House Ltd on their achievement."

Steve Burrows, Managing Director of Investors in People North of England said:

"This is a fantastic achievement for Rush House Ltd and I would like to congratulate the team on their success. We believe that good people make a great business and as a proven organisational development framework, Investors in People is designed to help organisations and their people to realise potential, enhance performance and meet goals. With their accreditation success, Rush House Ltd is certainly working to realise their people potential."

Commenting on the award, Rachael Wilson (CEO) said: "I am very pleased and proud that once again Rush House Ltd has met the core standard for Investors in People. I believe it is a good reflection of the excellent team we have here and the inspiring work that we do on a daily basis to improve the lives of vulnerable young people".

Supporting People Review

Supporting People attended Rush House on the 24th November for the annual performance review. Rachael Wilson CEO told staff "As you will be aware today we had our review carried out by the SP team. The initial feedback is extremely positive (the best we've ever had!) and is true testament to the commitment, passion and work that you all do."
